PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 86th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1959

The 7th day of January being the day prescribed by Public Law 85-819, 85th Congress, 2d session, for the meeting of Congress, the 1st session of the 86th Congress commenced this day.

The Senate assembled in its Chamber at the Capitol.

RICHARD M. NIXON, of California, Vice President of the United States, called the Senate to order at 12 o'clock meridian.

The Chaplain, Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, D.D., of the city of Washington, offered the following prayer:

Our Father, God, who amid the toils of time hath set eternity in our hearts, Summoned by a new year and a new session to face matters that pertain to the Nation's welfare, before we talk to one another and to a listening world, we would turn to Thee, without whose guidance and help our feeble hands will fail and our striving will be losing.

Thou hast ordained that in the leadership of public affairs the welfare of the many must ever rest upon the shoulders of the few. We beseech Thee in this high hour of beginnings to give humility, understanding, and the grace of receptivity to those who in Thy name and for the Nation's sake in this hallowed Chamber are entrusted by the people with the solemn responsibility of governance.

Grant that those who here speak and act for this last best hope of humanity, as servants of the common good, may meet every problem, every task, with patriotism undefiled, with integrity unswayed, and with hatred of all pretense and expediency, in the knowledge that all great and noble service in this world is based on gentleness, patience, and truth. Even in the clash of minds wrestling with thorny questions, grant us the art of disagreeing without being disagreeable, remembering ever that a soft answer turneth away wrath and that he who keepeth his own spirit is greater than he who taketh a city.

And so with faith in the Most High that opens for us all infinite resources, with faith in one another which bridges all cleavages of opinion, with a faith that the way of the Republic is down no fatal slope, but up to freer light and air, O Thou God of the nations, bring the dear country of our hope and prayer to—

The peace that comes of purity,
The strength to simple justice due.
So runs our loyal dream of Thee
God of our fathers make it true.

CV—1

We ask it in the dear Redeemer's name. Amen.

oath prescribed by law was administered to them by the Vice President, and they severally subscribed to the oath in the official oath book.

[Applause on the floor and in the galleries.]

The legislative clerk called the names of Mr. YARBOROUGH, and Mr. YOUNG of Ohio.

These Senators, escorted by Mr. JOHNSON of Texas, advanced to the Vice President's desk; the oath prescribed by law was administered to them by the Vice President, and they severally subscribed to the oath in the official oath book.

[Applause on the floor and in the galleries.]

ORDER FOR ADJOURNMENT TO 10 O'CLOCK TOMORROW

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President—

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Senator from Texas.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President, I should like to announce for the information of the Senate that because of the fact that many Senators have been sworn in, and that they have scheduled engagements at luncheons during the afternoon, we do not anticipate any votes in the Senate. So far as the leadership is aware, we will have none.

I desire to make a brief statement later in the afternoon before the Senate adjourns, but at this stage I should like to ask unanimous consent that when the Senate concludes its business today, it convene at 10 a.m. tomorrow. In other words, when we adjourn today, we shall adjourn to convene at 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Mr. JAVITS. Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Senator will state it.

Mr. JAVITS. Mr. President, under what rule does the Senate now proceed in respect to this unanimous-consent request?

The VICE PRESIDENT. Under the advisory opinion the Chair rendered at the beginning of the last Congress, it is the opinion of the Chair that until the Senate indicates otherwise by its majority vote the Senate is proceeding under the rules adopted previously by the Senate, but, as the Chair also indicated in that opinion, it is the view of the Chair that a majority of the Senate has a constitutional right at the beginning of each new Congress to determine what rules it desires to follow.

Mr. JAVITS. Mr. President, a further parliamentary inquiry.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Senator will state it.

Mr. JAVITS. Will those who seek to have the Senate adopt new rules be, by their acquiescence, waiving the privilege which the Chair has specified if they fail to object to this unanimous-consent request?

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President, will the Senator yield to me at that point?

Mr. JAVITS. I yield.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. I may say to the Senator from New York that the Parliamentarian advised me that Senators would not be waiving anything and that it would not affect the situation one way or the other. I consulted the Parliamentarian prior to making my request. The only purpose is to enable Senators to know that we expect the Senate to meet early.

Mr. JAVITS. May I say to the Senator—

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Chair will so rule.

Mr. JAVITS. I thank the Senator from Texas, and I thank the Chair.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Is there objection to the unanimous-consent request of the Senator from Texas? Without objection, the request is agreed to.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk called the roll and the following Senators answered to their names:

TERMS OF NEW SENATORS

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President, as a Senator from the largest State in the Union [laughter] south of the North Pole [laughter], I send to the desk a resolution for the classification of the two Senators from Alaska, and I ask for its immediate consideration.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Secretary will read the resolution for the information of the Senate.

The Chief Clerk read the resolution (S. Res. 1), as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate proceed to ascertain the classes to which the Senators from the State of Alaska shall be assigned in conformity with the resolution of the 14th of May, 1789, and as the Constitution requires.

Resolved, That the Secretary put into the ballot box three papers of equal size, numbered, respectively, 1, 2, 3. Each of the Senators from the State of Alaska shall draw out one paper. The paper numbered 1, if drawn, shall entitle the Senator to be placed in the class of Senators whose terms of service will expire the 2d day of January 1965. The paper numbered 2, if drawn, shall entitle the Senator to be placed in the class of Senators whose terms of service will expire the 2d day of January 1961. And the paper numbered 3, if drawn, shall entitle the Senator to be placed in the class of Senators whose terms of service will expire the 2d day of January 1963.

THE VICE PRESIDENT. Is there objection to the present consideration of the resolution?

There being no objection, the resolution was considered and agreed to.

THE VICE PRESIDENT. Pursuant to the resolution, the Secretary will place in the ballot box 3 papers numbered, respectively, 1, 2, and 3.

The Secretary placed the papers in the ballot box.

THE VICE PRESIDENT. The two Senators from Alaska will now present themselves at the desk.

(Mr. BARTLETT and Mr. GRUENING presented themselves at the desk.)

THE VICE PRESIDENT. By agreement between the two Senators, the Senator from Alaska [Mr. GRUENING] will draw the first paper.

(Mr. GRUENING drew a paper from the box.)

THE VICE PRESIDENT. The Senator from Alaska [Mr. GRUENING] having drawn the paper numbered 3, his term will expire on January 2, 1963.

(Mr. BARTLETT drew a paper from the box.)

THE VICE PRESIDENT. The Senator from Alaska [Mr. BARTLETT], having drawn the paper numbered 2, his term will expire on January 2, 1961.

NOTIFICATION TO THE PRESIDENT

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 2) which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That a committee consisting of two Senators be appointed by the Vice President to join such committee as may be appointed by the House of Representatives to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that a quorum of each House is assembled and that the Congress is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make.

THE VICE PRESIDENT appointed Mr. JOHNSON of Texas and Mr. DIRKSEN to the committee on the part of the Senate.

NOTIFICATION TO THE HOUSE

Mr. DIRKSEN submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 3), which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That the Secretary inform the House of Representatives that a quorum of the Senate is assembled and that the Senate is ready to proceed to business.

HOUR OF DAILY MEETING

Mr. MANSFIELD submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 4) which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That the hour of daily meeting of the Senate be 12 o'clock meridian unless otherwise ordered.

AMENDMENT OF SENATE RULES

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President, on behalf of the distinguished Senator from Arizona [Mr. HAYDEN]; the minority leader, the distinguished Senator from Illinois [Mr. DIRKSEN]; the majority whip, the distinguished Senator from Montana [Mr. MANSFIELD]; the chairman of the conference of the minority, the distinguished Senator from Massachusetts [Mr. SALTONSTALL]; the chairman of the minority policy committee, the distinguished Senator from New Hampshire [Mr. BRIDGES]; and myself, I send to the desk a resolution and I ask that the clerk read it, with the understanding that I do not lose the floor.

THE VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, it is so ordered; and the Secretary will read the resolution.

The Chief Clerk read the resolution (S. Res. 5), as follows:

Resolved, That subsection 2 of rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended (1) by striking out "except subsection 3 of rule XXII," and (2) by striking out "two-thirds of the Senators duly chosen and sworn" and inserting in lieu thereof "two-thirds of the Senators present and voting."

Sec. 2. Subsection 3 of rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended by striking out "and of subsection 2 of this rule."

Sec. 3. Rule XXXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended by inserting "1." immediately preceding "At", and by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph as follows:

"2. The rules of the Senate shall continue from one Congress to the next Congress unless they are changed as provided in these rules."

Mr. JAVITS. Mr. President, a point of order.

Mr. CASE of New Jersey. Mr. President—

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President, I do not plan to debate the resolution today, nor do I expect to go into its details or merits. We shall have ample time to do that. But I want to give a brief explanation of the resolution for the benefit of the Members of the Senate.

This is a body of reasonable men and women.

Our continuing unity exceeds our passing division.

There is, I believe, full understanding among us on what will be our first order of business. Not all desire that this should be, but all do accept the fact that it will be, and that the Senate will proceed in orderly and dignified fashion until the matter is resolved.

The concern is with one rule in our body of rules. The concern is not with the full body of rules.

Some believe that rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate should be changed drastically. Some feel it should not be changed at all. Others among us feel that a constructive measure of responsibility can be added to the rule without a nonconstructive sacrifice of old standards of free debate.

Under any circumstances, it is the variance in our views on rule XXII that we come to reconcile, and we can proceed directly under the rules of the Senate to the issue at hand—rule XXII itself.

That is the purpose of the resolution I offer.

This resolution proposes that rule XXII be changed.

It would permit cloture of debate on the vote of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting.

It would extend cloture to motions to proceed to consider a change in the Standing Rules of the Senate. It would add a new paragraph to section 3 of rule 32 providing that the rules of the Senate shall continue from one Congress to the next unless changed as provided in the rules.

This is the same as Senate Resolution 30 of the last Congress, which I had the privilege of submitting for myself and some 38 other Senators.

The point is not simply the merits of this resolution in terms of what it provides, but, rather, that by making it the business of the Senate we proceed directly to the real issue. Each Senator can, individually, offer such suggestions as he may desire during the course of our deliberations. All views can be heard.

This issue has lingered overly long in our national discussions. The people expect us, as reasonable men and women to resolve it and, as responsible men and women not to create new issues in our wake.

I am, however, fully aware of the provisions of rule 40, which entitles the Senate to 1 day's notice in writing of motions to amend or modify a rule and that any Senator may insist upon the compliance with the rule.

If objection is presented, I shall file such notice and plan to call again for consideration of the resolution at the expiration of 1 day.

I hope that we may proceed on this course. I am sure that we shall give this issue the full consideration which it deserves. I am equally sure that we can—and will—as reasonable men and women resolve the issue so that the Senate may proceed to its important labors for the Nation.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of my resolution.

Mr. JAVITS. Mr. President, reserving the right to object, I should like to propound a parliamentary inquiry.

THE VICE PRESIDENT. The Senator from New York will state it.

Mr. JAVITS. Under what rule will the resolution submitted by the Senator from Texas be considered?

THE VICE PRESIDENT. The resolution submitted by the Senator from Texas will be considered under the rules of the Senate which have been adopted previously by the Senate. But as the Chair stated earlier today, and as he expressed himself more fully in an advisory opinion at the beginning of the last Congress, in the opinion of the Chair the rules previously adopted by the Senate and currently in effect are not, insofar as they restrict the power of the Senate to change its rules, binding on the Senate at this time.

The Chair expressed that opinion in the last Congress, but it is only an opinion. The question of constitutionality lies within the power of the Senate itself to decide. The Constitution gives to the Senate the power to make its rules. That means that the Members of the Senate have the right to determine the rules under which the Senate will operate. This right, in the opinion of the Chair, is one which can be exercised by and is lodged in a majority of the Members of the Senate. This right, in the opinion of the Chair, in order to be operative also implies the constitutional right that the majority has the power to cut off debate in order to exercise the right of changing or determining the rules.

Mr. JAVITS. Mr. President, again reserving the right to object, I wish to propound another parliamentary inquiry.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Senator from New York will state it.

Mr. JAVITS. Does the Chair, therefore, propose to rule at the appropriate time that paragraph 2 of rule XXII, dealing with the method of cloture, and paragraph 3 of rule XXII, which prevents cloture on motions to amend the rules, are inapplicable to the debate on the resolution of the Senator from Texas?

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Chair will at an appropriate time indicate his opinion that those rules are inapplicable insofar as they restrict the constitutional right of a majority of the Senate to determine or change the rules of the Senate. But the Chair will submit that question to the Senate itself to decide, because, as the Chair pointed out, it is a constitutional question, and the Chair lacks the power to make a decision on a constitutional question. He can indicate his opinion, as he has done, but the Senate itself must make the decision.

Mr. JAVITS. Mr. President, again reserving the right to object, I wish to make a further parliamentary inquiry.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Senator from New York will state it.

Mr. JAVITS. When will be the proper time to seek that ruling of the Chair?

The VICE PRESIDENT. That time lies within the discretion of the Senators who desire to exercise the right which they consider to be theirs. If, for example, during the course of the debate on the motion of the Senator from Texas, which deals with changing the rules, a Senator believes that action should be taken and debate closed, such Senator at that time could, in the opinion of the Chair, raise the constitutional question by moving to cut off debate. The Chair would indicate his opinion that such a motion was in order but would submit the question to the Senate for its decision.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President, if Senators will permit the resolution to be considered, I assume we will have the benefit of the opinions of most of the Members of the Senate, advisory or whatever else they may be, as well as the opinion of the occupant of the Chair at any time. All I wanted to do was to have the question before the Senate, so that the Senate might proceed to consider it. Each Senator may then present his own individual views and recommendations; the Chair, if he desires to do so, can submit his recommendations; and the Senate can give due consideration to them.

Mr. JAVITS. I have no desire, if the Senator from Texas will be so gracious as allow me to say so, to prevent the consideration of the resolution today because of the 1-day rule provided in the rules which are alleged to continue in force. I do, Mr. President, however, have the desire to raise the issue which has been raised in this colloquy, and with the President of the Senate, immediately upon serious consideration of this rule, because I do not believe we who oppose this resolution should run the risk of the ruling and the result of a ruling at some ultimate date when debate has gone on for some considerable period of time.

I shall object to the request only so that the matter may be worked out, if that is the desire of the Senator from Texas. I am, therefore, willing to have him work out, as he has always done so ably, a procedure by which the Senate's will, as to the constitutional question, may be determined before we enter upon a protracted debate. If the Senator would be able to work that out—and I am confident, certainly, for my side, that we shall be more than agreeable to any reasonable arrangements—I should certainly have no objection to going forward today.

I wish to make it clear that I have no desire to precipitate the matter today, by objection.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. As I understand, the Senator from New York is seeking the opinion of the Vice President.

The Senator from Texas is seeking the opinion of 97 of his colleagues as to the kind of rule they desire to write.

I do not care to prolong the debate. If the Senator from New York desires to make a point of order, so that the Vice President may render his opinion first, the Senator from Texas will be glad to yield for that purpose at this time. If the Senator from New York does not, I suggest that he permit the resolution to be considered, and that the Senate adjourn until 10 o'clock tomorrow. We shall present the resolution on its merits. No doubt amendments will be offered to it, and various points of order which may be conjured up may be raised.

Mr. JAVITS. Mr. President, the Senator from New York does desire to make the point of order. The legislative situation, as I understand it, is that there is pending a unanimous-consent request. Therefore, as I understand, that would have to be disposed of before I could make the point of order.

I should be glad to make the point, but I want to make it at the convenience of the majority leader, since the majority leader must have had a reason for bringing this resolution up today, and not waiting the 1 day provided by the rule, as referred to by the Senator.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. If the Senator from New York will permit the resolution to come before the Senate, the Senator from Texas will immediately yield the floor to the Senator from New York, for the purpose of permitting him to make his point of order.

Mr. JAVITS. That will be agreeable to me.

Mr. CASE of New Jersey. Mr. President, reserving the right to object, let me propound a parliamentary inquiry: namely, whether the resolution is subject to amendment in each of its several parts.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Yes; the resolution would be subject to amendment in each of its parts.

Mr. CASE of New Jersey. Let me further ask whether the whole resolution is subject to having offered to it a substitute or an amendment in the nature of a complete substitute.

The VICE PRESIDENT. That would be in order.

Mr. CASE of New Jersey. A further parliamentary inquiry, and still reserving the right to object: On amendments to particular parts of the resolution, would a record vote lie?

The VICE PRESIDENT. If requested by a Member of the Senate present and approved by the requisite number.

Mr. RUSSELL. Mr. President, I was very much interested in some of the observations which have been made, and I think that what will be the result of the consideration of this resolution should be made perfectly clear to the Senate.

I should like to ask the Chair whether he has held that after the Senate has agreed unanimously to consider the resolution, a point of order against the resolution can be made.

The VICE PRESIDENT. At any stage of the proceeding, a point of order can be raised against the resolution, according to the Parliamentarian.

Mr. RUSSELL. I appreciate the fact that the Chair has consulted the Parliamentarian at this stage of the proceedings. I hope that habit will obtain in the future, if it has not in the past.

I was interested in the matter, and I appreciate the Chair's statement that he might submit the constitutional questions to the Senate for consideration. Is the Chair going to decide whether they are constitutional questions? How shall we know whether they are constitutional questions?

The VICE PRESIDENT. When a Member of the Senate—

Mr. RUSSELL. I am interested in what the Chair had in mind—whether he is going to rule, or whether he is going to let the Senate decide.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Chair believes he has made his position quite clear. The Chair has always insisted that this question is a constitutional question. The Chair has only indicated his own opinion with regard to the constitutional question, but has indicated that in the final analysis only the Senate itself can make that determination.

Mr. RUSSELL. I am very grateful to the Chair for that ruling. The Chair has made a great many rulings, including the one in 1957 which declared the rules of the Senate unconstitutional. Of course I have been of the opinion that the Chair was a member of the executive branch of the Government who was given the duty of presiding over a parliamentary body; and that was the first time I had heard that the Chair exercised judicial powers, and could declare a rule of the Senate unconstitutional. But I assume that if that were done, the Senate might, on an appeal, have a right to pass on that issue.

I shall not object to the consideration of the question; but I certainly reserve my own opinion, as the Chair has apparently reserved his, as to the right of a point of order to be lodged against the constitutionality of a proposal which has been considered by the Senate by unanimous consent, and thus permit a unanimous-consent agreement to be set aside by a majority vote of the Senate. That is something which heretofore has never even been considered in the Senate. If there is a unanimous-consent agreement, it can be changed only by unanimous consent. And when the Senate agrees unanimously to consider this matter, I do not believe it is one which can be dislodged by any point of order which can be decided by majority vote.

Of course, the Senate can do anything; it can sit here and solemnly vote that black is white, if it wishes to do so, or vice versa. But when we agree to the consideration of the resolution, and it is before the Senate, I do not believe the Chair can dislodge it by any point of order, under any ruling of which I am aware.

Mr. JAVITS and other Senators addressed the Chair.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Texas yield?

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. I have no desire to cut off discussion, Mr. President.

Mr. CASE of New Jersey. Mr. President, in view of the fact that the Senator from Georgia has stated that he intends to use a unanimous-consent request for the purpose he indicated, I am constrained to object.

Mr. JAVITS. Mr. President, I join in that objection.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President, I therefore send to the desk a notice of a motion to amend certain rules of the Senate.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The motion will be read.

The motion submitted by Mr. JOHNSON of Texas was read, as follows:

NOTICE OF MOTION TO AMEND CERTAIN
SENATE RULES

In accordance with the provisions of rule XL of the Standing Rules of the Senate, I hereby give notice in writing that I shall hereafter move to amend rules XXII and XXXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate in the following particulars, namely:

Subsection 2 of rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended (1) by striking out "except subsection 3 of rule XXII," and (2) by striking out "two-thirds of the Senators duly chosen and sworn" and inserting in lieu thereof "two-thirds of the Senators present and voting."

Subsection 3 of rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended by striking out "and of subsection 2 of this rule."

Rule XXXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended by inserting "1." immediately preceding "At," and by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph as follows:

"2. The rules of the Senate shall continue from one Congress to the next Congress unless they are changed as provided in these rules."

The purpose of the proposed amendments is—

(1) To modify subsection 2 of rule XXII by reducing the number of votes required for the adoption of a cloture motion;

(2) To modify subsection 3 of said rule so as to permit a cloture motion to be presented on a motion to proceed to the consideration of any motion, resolution or proposal to change any of the standing rules of the Senate.

(3) To add a new paragraph to rule XXXII to provide that the rules of the Senate shall continue from one Congress to the next Congress unless they are changed as provided in the rules of the Senate.

Mr. CASE of New Jersey and Mr. JOHNSON of Texas addressed the Chair.

Mr. ANDERSON. Mr. President, I move that the Senate proceed to adopt its rules. I make the motion on behalf of myself, Mr. CASE of New Jersey, Mr. DOUGLAS, Mr. JAVITS, Mr. HUMPHREY, Mr. KUCHEL, Mr. CARROLL, Mrs. SMITH of Maine, Mr. CLARK, Mr. BUSH, Mr. SYMINGTON, Mr. ALLOTT, Mr. NEUBERGER, Mr. COOPER, Mr. McNAMARA, Mr. BEALL, Mr. MAGNUSON, Mr. KEATING, Mr. JACKSON, Mr. PROUTY, Mr. KENNEDY, Mr. SCOTT, Mr. LAUSCHE, Mr. MORSE, Mr. HENNINGS, Mr. PROXMIER, Mr. PASTORE, Mr. ENGLE, Mr. CANNON, Mr. HART, Mr. MCCARTHY, Mr. MUSKIE, and Mr. WILLIAMS of New Jersey.

My motion is as follows:

In accordance with article 1, section 5 of the Constitution which declares that * * * "each House may determine the rules of its proceedings" * * * I now move that this body take up for immediate consideration the adoption of rules for the Senate of the 86th Congress.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President, I should like to ask what the parliamentary situation is and when I lost the floor.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Chair understood the Senator from Texas had yielded.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. I do not want my motion displaced. Under rule XL, I have given notice I intend to bring up this motion tomorrow. Would not my motion have priority over the motion of the Senator from New Mexico? If not, I do not want to yield for the purpose of killing my motion.

Mr. CASE of New Jersey. Mr. President, will the Senator yield?

Mr. ANDERSON. Mr. President, will the Senator indulge me for a brief statement?

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. If the Chair would give me a ruling, I would appreciate it.

Mr. CASE of New Jersey. Mr. President, will the Senator yield?

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Not at this point.

The VICE PRESIDENT. It is the opinion of the Chair that the Senator from Texas, having given his notice—

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. I am unable to hear the Chair.

The VICE PRESIDENT. It is the opinion of the Chair that the Senator from Texas, having given notice that he intends to move to amend the rules, can call up his motion the next day. The Chair understands the present parliamentary inquiry is whether or not it is in order for the Senator from New Mexico to move, as he has, the adoption of rules. The Chair, therefore, has the opportunity at this point to rule whether the motion of the Senator from New Mexico is in order. But if the Chair understands correctly, the Senator from Texas has objected to the recognition by the Chair of the Senator from New Mexico.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. I have not done so as yet. I have asked the Vice President when I lost the floor. I understood I had been recognized. I understood I was standing at my desk when the Chair recognized the Senator from New Mexico. If the motion of the Senator from New Mexico is going to supplant my motion, that is one question.

Second, I do not agree that the Senator from New Mexico has been recognized as yet.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Senator from Texas is correct in saying he had the floor. The Chair had the impression, which may have been an incorrect one, that the Senator from Texas was yielding to various Senators, and that he was yielding to the Senator from New Mexico.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. No. The Senator from New Mexico did not ask me to yield. I think he will confirm that statement. Various Senators, reserving the right to object, expressed themselves.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Under the circumstances, the Chair is sure the Senator from New Mexico will recognize there was a misunderstanding, because the Chair had recognized the Senator from Texas, and was recognizing other Senators only as the Senator from Texas yielded to them.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. I wish to make it very clear that I do not want any other motion to take precedence over my motion. I was asking the Chair for a ruling that I had not lost the floor, and if I had, and the Senator from New Mexico had been recognized, whether my motion would take precedence.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Texas repeat his inquiry?

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. If the Senator from New Mexico had been recognized and had offered his motion, would his motion take precedence over my motion?

The VICE PRESIDENT. If the Senator from Texas wants a ruling on that question, the Chair suggests that the Senator from Texas allow the Senator from New Mexico to make the motion.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. I had thought the Chair had been making various rulings pretty freely today. Previously I raised the parliamentary inquiry, which I repeat, Would any motion made by the Senator from New Mexico, or any other Senator, take precedence over the motion of the Senator from Texas?

Mr. CASE of New Jersey. Mr. President, on the ruling—

The VICE PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Texas yield to the Senator from New Jersey for a parliamentary inquiry?

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. I should like to have a ruling, on my parliamentary inquiry, because I am prepared, as I informed the Chair in advance, to make a motion to adjourn, since I do not want my motion to be supplanted by any other motion. I have not yielded for that purpose. I do not intend to do so.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Chair will make a ruling with regard to the motion of the Senator from New Mexico if the Senator from Texas will allow the Senator from New Mexico to make the motion.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Will the Chair answer my parliamentary inquiry?

The VICE PRESIDENT. In other words, the Senator from Texas does not want to give the Senator from New Mexico an opportunity to make his motion?

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. The Chair has been requested to give answers to parliamentary inquiries, which he has been freely disposed to answer in the case of other Senators. The Chair has not shown any disposition to reserve any advisory opinions. I am propounding any motion made by any other Senator would take precedence over the motion I have made.

Mr. CASE of New Jersey. Mr. President, will the Senator yield?

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Not until I have this question cleared up.

Mr. CASE of New Jersey. Will the Senator yield a moment?

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. I do not yield.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Any views which the Chair expresses would be an opinion only on a constitutional question on which the Senate has the ultimate power of decision. The Chair's opinion would be that any motion which has to do with the constitutional power of the Senate to make its rules can be taken up by the Senate.

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Has the Chair concluded?

The VICE PRESIDENT. Yes.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 10 O'CLOCK A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President, pursuant to the order previously entered, I move that the Senate stand adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Mr. JAVITS. Mr. President—

The VICE PRESIDENT. A motion to adjourn is not debatable.

Mr. JAVITS, Mr. MORSE, Mr. DOUGLAS, and several other Senators asked for the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll, and Mr. ALLOTT voted in the negative when his name was called.

Mr. DOUGLAS. Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry. Do I understand correctly that if the motion to adjourn shall be agreed to—

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry. Did a Senator answer to his name?

The VICE PRESIDENT. The rollcall will proceed.

The rollcall was concluded.

Mr. MANSFIELD. I announce that the Senator from Oregon [Mr. NEUBERGER] is absent because of illness. I further announce that, if present and voting, the Senator from Oregon [Mr. NEUBERGER] would vote "nay."

Mr. DIRKSEN. I announce that the Senator from Arizona [Mr. GOLDWATER] is detained on official business.

The result was announced—yeas 73, nays 23, as follows:

NOT VOTING—2

Goldwater Neuberger

So the motion was agreed to; and (at 1 o'clock and 32 minutes p.m.) the Senate adjourned, the adjournment being, under the order previously entered, until tomorrow, Thursday, January 8, 1959, at 10 o'clock a.m.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1959

This being the day fixed by the provisions of Public Law 819 (85th Cong., 2d sess.), approved August 28, 1958, for the annual meeting of the Congress of the United States, the Members-elect of the House of Representatives of the 86th Congress met in their Hall, and at 12 o'clock noon were called to order by Hon. Ralph R. Roberts, Clerk of the 85th Congress.

PRAYER

Rev. Bernard Braskamp, D.D., Chaplain of the 85th Congress, offered the following prayer:

Genesis I: 1: In the beginning God. Most merciful and gracious God, in whose divine keeping and control are the coming in and the going out of all our days and years, we desire to begin, to continue, and to end this 86th Congress with Thee.

We worship and adore Thee as the supreme source and inspiration of faith and fortitude, of wisdom and understanding, and the guiding intelligence in the life of men and of nations.

Grant that on this solemn and sacred day, in the calendar of our Republic, all our citizens may invoke the blessings of Thy grace and favor upon our chosen representatives who have assembled in this Chamber to take the oath of office and the pledge of loyalty and service.

Hear us as we unite in offering unto Thee the prayer of the Prince of Peace:

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. They will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.

Amen.

ANSWERED "PRESENT"—2

Halleck Rayburn

NOT VOTING—5

Boyle Reed Teague, Calif.
Hoffman, Ill. Taylor

The CLERK. The tellers agree in their tally. The total number of votes cast is 431, of which the Honorable SAM RAYBURN has received 281, and the Honorable CHARLES A. HALLECK, of Indiana, has received 149. There were two Members voting "present."

Therefore, the Honorable SAM RAYBURN, a Representative-elect from the State of Texas, having received a majority of all the votes cast, is duly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives of the 86th Congress.

The Clerk appoints the following committee to escort the Speaker-elect to the chair: the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. HALLECK; the gentleman from Massachusetts, Mr. McCORMACK; the gentleman from Georgia, Mr. VINSON; the gentleman from Missouri, Mr. CANNON; and the gentleman from Iowa, Mr. HOEVEN.

(The Doorkeeper announced the Speaker-elect of the House of Representatives of the 86th Congress who was escorted to the chair by the committee of escort.)

Mr. HALLECK. Mr. Speaker, while, of course, I had hoped and wished on this occasion that we on our side had the votes to carry on through to a victory in this election, I must say that it is a high privilege and a great honor to present to my colleagues of the House a man who has proved himself qualified, as few men could, to hold the great office of Speaker of this body.

I think, Mr. Speaker, that I might, with propriety, warn you that on our side, while we did not win on this occasion, we are going to do everything we can to see to it that our numbers increase the next time.

Yesterday evening it was again my pleasure to attend a birthday party given for our Speaker, the gentleman from Texas [Mr. RAYBURN]. There I saw again evidence of the high regard and esteem and affection in which he is held.

To be Speaker of the House of Representatives, in my opinion, next to being President of the United States, is the greatest honor any man can have; it is among the highest offices that any man can hold. While it is a signal honor to be Speaker of this body, likewise it is a heavy responsibility. I am sure that those of my colleagues who have served with me will agree with me that Speaker RAYBURN has, through his service here, upheld the best and the finest traditions of this body. To our new Members, who have not served here with him before, may I say that we have found him to be fair and just at all times and I am sure that they, too, will find him to be fair and just at all times.

Mr. Speaker, as we go through this Congress, of course it shall come to pass that we will have some vigorous contention concerning some of the matters to come before us. We shall contend on our side as best we can and you will contend on your side as best you can. And that is the way it should be. But let me say further and in the same breath, Mr. Speaker, that there will be many other matters concerning which we should undertake to bring about the closest understanding and cooperation for the welfare of this beloved country of ours. For myself and for the people on my side of the aisle, as will be the case, I know, on your side of the aisle, I am sure you can count on all of us to give you that sort of cooperation.

With that, Members-elect, I present to you the distinguished Speaker of the House of Representatives, a truly great American, the Honorable SAM RAYBURN, of Texas. [Applause, the Members rising.]

The SPEAKER (Mr. RAYBURN). Mr. HALLECK, my colleagues of the 86th Congress, to say that I am not deeply moved and that I do not appreciate the high honor that you have conferred upon me for the ninth time would be out of class. I agree with Mr. HALLECK that this is a great office. Only 44 men in the history of the United States have had the honor to stand in this place and preside over the House of Representatives as its Speaker.

I approach this session of Congress and the position I hold in it with a feeling of great humility, with doubt always as to whether my decisions will be correct and in the best interests of our total country, but I pledge you now as I have in the past that if it is within my power, working with you, I will uphold the dignity and the prerogatives of the House of Representatives.

There is no such a thing as an upper and a lower House of the Congress of the United States. They are coordinate and equal, and this body will remain equal if I have my way.

We as Democrats have come from an election in which the people of America expressed overwhelming confidence in our ability to legislate for them. It is not a matter to boast about but it is a matter about which we should consecrate ourselves every day of this Congress. Realizing this high compliment that the American people have paid our party, we must realize that that brings with it tremendous, overwhelming, and almost crushing responsibility. We must act so and legislate so that our country will be better on the morrow than it was on yesterday.

We are going to be as nonpartisan as we are allowed to be. When the President delivers his state of the Union message on next Friday, we are going to listen to it attentively and sympathetically, trusting that he will advocate the things that we as Americans can go along with. We do not dislike Mr. Eisenhower just because he is a Republican. We do not disagree with him just because he is not a member of our party. But in conscience and in good will we shall try to carry out his program if in our opinion it is in the best interests of all of the American people; and on many, many of his recommendations I feel that we will be able to go along 100 percent.

We live in a day which, in my opinion, is the most dangerous period that civilization has gone through since the Man walked the shores 20 centuries ago and preached peace.

The United States of America, we want the world to know, does not covet a foot of ground over which the flag of any other nation flies. We want them to do like we want to do, to stay at home in peace and tend to our own affairs, without interference from any source on earth whatsoever. We are also willing for them to have the kind of government their people think is the best for them. In foreign affairs I trust that there will be no Democrats, there will be no Republicans, but we will all seek to do the things that will bring about the greatest prosperity to our country, and look forward that one day we may have a peace that will be universal.

Our efforts, therefore, shall be, cooperating with anyone anywhere who has his face fixed in front and whose feet are pointed in the right direction, to lead to a world of concord, a world of equal opportunity, and one day, under God, a peace that will be everlasting.

I thank you.

I am now ready to take the oath of office, and I will ask the senior Member of the House of Representatives, Hon. CARL VINSON, of Georgia, to administer the oath.

Mr. VINSON then administered the oath of office to Mr. RAYBURN, of Texas.

SWEARING IN OF MEMBERS

The SPEAKER. According to precedent, the Chair will swear in all Members at this time.

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker—

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Michigan rise?

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, upon my responsibility as a Member-elect of the 86th Congress, I object to the oath being administered to the gentleman from Arkansas, Mr. DALE ALFORD. I base this upon facts and statements which I consider to be reliable.

The SPEAKER. Under the precedents, the Chair will ask the gentleman from Arkansas not to rise to take the oath with the other Members, for the present at least. If the other Members will rise, I will now administer the oath of office.

The Members and Delegates-elect rose and the Speaker administered to them the oath of office.

ADMINISTERING OATH OF OFFICE TO DALE ALFORD

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. McCORMACK].

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, I offer a privileged resolution (H. Res. 1) and move its immediate consideration.

The Clerk reported the resolution as follows:

Resolved, That the Speaker is hereby authorized and directed to administer the oath of office to the gentleman from Arkansas, Mr. DALE ALFORD.

Resolved, That the question of the final right of DALE ALFORD to a seat in the 86th Congress be referred to the Committee on House Administration, when elected, and said committee shall have the power to send for persons and papers and examine witnesses on oath in relation to the subject matter of this resolution.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, this resolution is in accord with existing precedents and, Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question on this resolution.

The previous question was ordered.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, may I make an inquiry on a point of parliamentary procedure.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, when the previous order has been moved and there is no debate, under the rules of the House are we not entitled to 40 minutes debate?

The SPEAKER. Under the precedents, the 40-minute rule does not apply before the adoption of the rules.

The question is on the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

SWEARING IN OF MEMBER

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. ALFORD], appear in the well of the House and take the oath of office.

Mr. ALFORD appeared in the well of the House and took the oath of office as a Member of the House of Representatives.

MAJORITY LEADER

Mr. PRICE. Mr. Speaker, as chairman of the Democratic caucus, I have been directed to report to the House that the Democratic Members have selected as majority leader the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. JOHN W. MCCORMACK].

MINORITY LEADER

Mr. HOEVEN. Mr. Speaker, as chairman of the Republican conference, I am directed by that conference to officially notify the House that the gentleman from Indiana the Honorable CHARLES A. HALLECK, has been selected as the minority leader of the House.

ELECTION OF CLERK, SERGEANT-AT-ARMS, DOORKEEPER, POSTMASTER AND CHAPLAIN

Mr. PRICE. Mr. Speaker, I offer a resolution (H. Res. 2), which I send to the desk, and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

Resolved, That Ralph R. Roberts, of the State of Indiana, be, and he is hereby, chosen Clerk of the House of Representatives;

Year: 19_____

REPORT

PURSUANT TO FEDERAL REGULATION OF LOBBYING ACT

P	QUARTER
	1st	2d	3d	4th

(Mark one square only)

NOTE ON ITEM "A".—(a) IN GENERAL. This "Report" form may be used by either an organization or an individual, as follows:

- (i) "Employee".—To file as an "employee," state (in Item "B") the name, address, and nature of business of the "employer". (If the "employee" is a firm [such as a law firm or public relations firm], partners and salaried staff members of such firm may join in filing a Report as an "employee".)
- (ii) "Employer".—To file as an "employer," write "None" in answer to Item "B".
- (b) SEPARATE REPORTS. An agent or employee should not attempt to combine his Report with the employer's Report:
 - (i) Employers subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their agents or employees.
 - (ii) Employees subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their employers.

A. ORGANIZATION OR INDIVIDUAL FILING:

1. State name, address, and nature of business.

2. If this Report is for an Employer, list names or agents or employees who will file Reports for this Quarter.

NOTE ON ITEM "B".—Reports by Agents or Employees. An employee is to file, each quarter, as many Reports as he has employers, except that: (a) If a particular undertaking is jointly financed by a group of employers, the group is to be considered as one employer, but all members of the group are to be named, and the contribution of each member is to be specified; (b) If the work is done in the interest of one person but payment therefor is made by another, a single Report—naming both persons as "employers"—is to be filed each quarter.

B. EMPLOYER.—State name, address, and nature of business. If there is no employer, write "None."

NOTE ON ITEM "C".—(a) The expression "in connection with legislative interests," as used in this Report, means "in connection with attempting, directly or indirectly, to influence the passage or defeat of legislation." "The term 'legislation' means bills, resolutions, amendments, nominations, and other matters pending or proposed in either House of Congress, and includes any other matter which may be the subject of action by either House"—§ 302(e).

(b) Before undertaking any activities in connection with legislative interests, organizations and individuals subject to the Lobbying Act are required to file a "Preliminary" Report (Registration).

(c) After beginning such activities, they must file a "Quarterly" Report at the end of each calendar quarter in which they have either received or expended anything of value in connection with legislative interests.

C. LEGISLATIVE INTERESTS, AND PUBLICATIONS in connection therewith:

1. State approximately how long legislative interests are to continue. If receipts and expenditures in connection with legislative interests have terminated,

☐ place an "X" in the box at the left, so that this Office will no longer expect to receive Reports.

2. State the general legislative interests of the person filing and set forth the specific legislative interests by reciting: (a) Short titles of statutes and bills; (b) House and Senate numbers of bills, where known; (c) citations of statutes, where known; (d) whether for or against such statutes and bills.

3. In the case of those publications which the person filing has caused to be issued or distributed in connection with legislative interests, set forth: (a) Description, (b) quantity distributed, (c) date of distribution, (d) name of printer or publisher (if publications were paid for by person filing) or name of donor (if publications were received as a gift).

(Answer items 1, 2, and 3 in the space below. Attach additional pages if more space is needed)

4. If this is a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) rather than a "Quarterly" Report, state below what the nature and amount of anticipated expenses will be; and if for an agent or employee, state also what the daily, monthly, or annual rate of compensation is to be. If this is a "Quarterly" Report, disregard this item "C4" and fill out item "D" and "E" on the back of this page. Do not attempt to combine a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) with a "Quarterly" Report.◀

AFFIDAVIT

[Omitted in printing]

NOTE ON ITEM "D."—(a) In General. The term "contribution" includes anything of value. When an organization or individual uses printed or duplicated matter in a campaign attempting to influence legislation, money received by such organization or individual—for such printed or duplicated matter—is a "contribution." "The term 'contribution' includes a gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money, or anything of value, and includes a contract, promise, or agreement, whether or not legally enforceable, to make a contribution"—Section 302(a) of the Lobbying Act.

(b) If THIS REPORT IS FOR AN EMPLOYER.—(i) In General. Item "D" is designed for the reporting of all receipts from which expenditures are made, or will be made, in accordance with legislative interests.

(ii) Receipts of Business Firms and Individuals.—A business firm (or individual) which is subject to the Lobbying Act by reason of expenditures which it makes in attempting to influence legislation—but which has no funds to expend except those which are available in the ordinary course of operating a business not connected in any way with the influencing of legislation—will have no receipts to report, even though it does have expenditures to report.

(iii) Receipts of Multipurpose Organizations.—Some organizations do not receive any funds which are to be expended solely for the purpose of attempting to influence legislation. Such organizations make such expenditures out of a general fund raised by dues, assessments, or other contributions. The percentage of the general fund which is used for such expenditures indicates the percentage of dues, assessments, or other contributions which may be considered to have been paid for that purpose. Therefore, in reporting receipts, such organizations may specify what that percentage is, and report their dues, assessments, and other contributions on that basis. However, each contributor of $500 or more is to be listed, regardless of whether the contribution was made solely for legislative purposes.

(c) If THIS REPORT IS FOR AN AGENT OR EMPLOYEE.—(i) In General. In the case of many employees, all receipts will come under Items "D 5" (received for services) and "D 12" (expense money and reimbursements). In the absence of a clear statement to the contrary, it will be presumed that your employer is to reimburse you for all expenditures which you make in connection with legislative interests.

(ii) Employer as Contributor of $500 or More.—When your contribution from your employer (in the form of salary, fee, etc.) amounts to $500 or more, it is not necessary to report such contribution under "D 13" and "D 14," since the amount has already been reported under "D 5," and the name of the "employer" has been given under Item "B" on page 1 of this report.

REPORT

PURSUANT TO FEDERAL REGULATION OF LOBBYING ACT

P	QUARTER
	1st	2d	3d	4th

(Mark one square only)

NOTE ON ITEM "A".—(a) IN GENERAL. This "Report" form may be used by either an organization or an individual, as follows:

- (i) "Employee".—To file as an "employee," state (in Item "B") the name, address, and nature of business of the "employer". (If the "employee" is a firm [such as a law firm or public relations firm], partners and salaried staff members of such firm may join in filing a Report as an "employee".)
- (ii) "Employer".—To file as an "employer," write "None" in answer to Item "B".
- (b) SEPARATE REPORTS. An agent or employee should not attempt to combine his Report with the employer's Report:
 - (i) Employers subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their agents or employees.
 - (ii) Employees subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their employers.

A. ORGANIZATION OR INDIVIDUAL FILING:

1. State name, address, and nature of business.

2. If this Report is for an Employer, list names or agents or employees who will file Reports for this Quarter.

NOTE ON ITEM "B".—Reports by Agents or Employees. An employee is to file, each quarter, as many Reports as he has employers, except that: (a) If a particular undertaking is jointly financed by a group of employers, the group is to be considered as one employer, but all members of the group are to be named, and the contribution of each member is to be specified; (b) if the work is done in the interest of one person but payment therefor is made by another, a single Report—naming both persons as "employers"—is to be filed each quarter.

B. EMPLOYER.—State name, address, and nature of business. If there is no employer, write "None."

NOTE ON ITEM "C".—(a) The expression "in connection with legislative interests," as used in this Report, means "in connection with attempting, directly or indirectly, to influence the passage or defeat of legislation." "The term 'legislation' means bills, resolutions, amendments, nominations, and other matters pending or proposed in either House of Congress, and includes any other matter which may be the subject of action by either House"—§ 302(e).

(b) Before undertaking any activities in connection with legislative interests, organizations and individuals subject to the Lobbying Act are required to file a "Preliminary" Report (Registration).

(c) After beginning such activities, they must file a "Quarterly" Report at the end of each calendar quarter in which they have either received or expended anything of value in connection with legislative interests.

C. LEGISLATIVE INTERESTS, AND PUBLICATIONS in connection therewith:

1. State approximately how long legislative interests are to continue. If receipts and expenditures in connection with legislative interests have terminated,

☐ place an "X" in the box at the left, so that this Office will no longer expect to receive Reports.

2. State the general legislative interests of the person filing and set forth the specific legislative interests by reciting: (a) Short titles of statutes and bills; (b) House and Senate numbers of bills, where known; (c) citations of statutes, where known; (d) whether for or against such statutes and bills.

3. In the case of those publications which the person filing has caused to be issued or distributed in connection with legislative interests, set forth: (a) Description, (b) quantity distributed; (c) date of distribution, (d) name of printer or publisher (if publications were paid for by person filing) or name of donor if publications were received as a gift).

(Answer items 1, 2, and 3 in the space below. Attach additional pages if more space is needed)

4. If this is a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) rather than a "Quarterly" Report, state below what the nature and amount of anticipated expenses will be; and if for an agent or employee, state also what the daily, monthly, or annual rate of compensation is to be. If this is a "Quarterly" Report, disregard this item "C4" and fill out item "D" and "E" on the back of this page. Do not attempt to combine a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) with a "Quarterly" Report.◀

SENATE

THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 1959

The Senate met at 10 o'clock a.m.

The Chaplain, Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, D.D., offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, Father of all men, who putteth down the mighty from their seats and exalteth the humble and the meek, without whom life has no spiritual source, no meaning above the dust on which we tread, but with whom there is power for the present and hope for the future; in this day of destiny, we seek Thee as our fathers have sought Thee in every generation, when the problems they faced were as frowning heights before their climbing feet. In this high and solemn Chamber of debate and decision, may the great causes that concern

Thy human family, the selfless ministries that help to heal the open sores of the world, gain the utter allegiance of our labor and our love, as we march with fearless tread in the gathering armies of friendship whose armor is the shield of Thy truth and whose sword is the invincible might of Thy love, against which all the spears of hate cannot ultimately prevail. We ask it in the dear Redeemer's name. Amen.
